II. CONNECTIONS WITH PARTIDO COMUNISTA
PUERTORRIQUENO

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Partido Comunista Puertorriqueño, (Communist Party of Puerto Rico), hereinafter referred to as the PCP, is a Communist Party in its own right and not a district organization of the Communist Party, USA, although it is based on the same Marxist-Leninist principles as the Communist Party, USA.

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 20, 1955, that on September 15, 1955, JUAN SAEZ CORALES, PABLO GARCIA RODRIGUEZ and RAMON MIRABAL CARRION, went to Naranjito, Puerto Rico, and visited the subject and [redacted]. T-4 stated that another trip is scheduled for Saturday, September 30, 1955, at which time an attempt will be made to organize a PCP section in Barrio Achiate.

T-3, supra, advised that JUAN SAEZ CORALES is the PCP Secretary of Labor on the PCP Central Committee and one of the eleven PCP Smith Act defendants indicted October 27, 1954, at San Juan.

T-3, supra, advised that PABLO GARCIA RODRIGUEZ is PCP Secretary of Finance on the PCP Central Committee and one of the eleven PCP Smith Act defendants indicted October 27, 1954, at San Juan.

T-3, supra, advised that RAMON MIRABAL CARRION is a member of the PCP Central Committee; Secretary General of PCP since May 15, 1954; former member of Popular Socialist Party of Cuba (Communist Party of Cuba); and one of eleven PCP Smith Act defendants indicted October 27, 1954, at San Juan.

T-3 advised on September 12, 1955, that [redacted] [redacted] is not a member of the PCP but is a PCP sympathizer.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

T-4, supra, advised on November 3, 1955, that to the best of his knowledge no further contacts were made with the subject or [redacted] by members of the PCP since the contact on September 15, 1955.

T-2, supra, advised on November 9, 1955, that the subject and [redacted] were renting a house at Kilometer 2, Barrio Achiate, Naranjito, Puerto Rico, from [redacted]. This informant stated that the [redacted] and expected to remain there for the next few months.

T-2 stated the subject stayed in his house most of the time and appeared to occupy much of his time by typing. T-2 did not know what material the subject was typing. T-2 further advised that the subject had made some recordings that he had sent to New York City and he had also heard a New York radio station play these recordings on the air. T-2 stated these recordings appear to be telling a story "making a joke" of the American way of life. Informant advised that these recordings were not favorable to the American way of life. T-2 was unable to furnish the names of these recordings, the name of the New York radio station, or any additional information concerning these recordings.

JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD SECURITY MATTER - C

EX-125

Reur FD-122 dated 11/30/55 recommending that subject be placed on the Security Index.

A review of this case reflects that the subject has never been identified as a member of a basic revolutionary organization. Subject has been active in several Communist front organizations as recently as 1953; however, such activity has not been in a leadership capacity within the past three years.

In view of the above, subject does not meet the criteria for inclusion on the Security Index set forth in SAC Letter 55-30.

In the event you receive additional information which would bring this subject within the criteria set forth in SAC Letter 55-30, you should,
of course, appropriately advise the Bureau.

In the future when recommending an individual for inclusion on the Security Index, you should be guided by instructions contained in Section 87D of the Manual of Instructions which state that a summary report should be submitted when initially recommending a subject for inclusion on the Security Index.

SUCCINCT SUMMARY

All informants mentioned in this summary have furnished reliable information in the past.

The subject was identified on page 7, column 3, of the August 2, 1951, edition of the "Daily Worker" as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York City.

Dr. MAX YERGAN, [redacted], and [redacted], have advised that the Committee for the Negro in the Arts is an outgrowth of the Cultural Committee of the National Negro Congress. It is a Negro Communist Party front organized by the Party to infiltrate and propagandize alleged acts of racial discrimination in employment in the arts professions.

The "Daily Worker" in its February 11, 1953, edition appears an article which sets forth that JULIAN MAYFIELD appeared in a play under the auspices of the Civil Rights Congress. The Civil Rights Congress has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[redacted] advised on August 12, 1953, that the subject appeared in an American Folk Opera entitled "Down in the Valley" which was presented at Camp Unity. [redacted] advised on May 27, 1953, that Camp Unity since its inception has been controlled by the Communist Party.

The "Daily Worker" in its May 29, 1953, edition reveals that JULIAN MAYFIELD was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V. J. JEROME, who was one of the Communist Party leaders convicted in the Southern District of New York on January 21, 1953, for violation of the Smith Act.

The subject is [redacted]

[redacted] advised on September 20, 1955, that on September 15, 1955, JUAN SAEZ CORALES, PABLO GARCIA RODRIGUEZ and RAMON MIRABAL CARRION, who are presently free on bail awaiting trial for violation of the Smith Act, all visited the subject and [redacted]. [redacted] did not know what was discussed during this visit.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

In view of the subject's association with Smith Act subjects of the San Juan Office and [redacted], it is recommended that he be included on the Security Index of the San Juan Office.

"The Hit," a novel by Julian Mayfield published by the Vanguard Press, will be on sale here soon. It is a wonderful dramatic novel which is the story of one day in the life of a Harlem boy. Julian, now residing in Puerto Rico with his wife, Mrs. Ana Livia Cordero, and son, was also an actor of some note, having created the famous role of Absalom in the Broadway production of "Lost in the Stars".

Re: Julian Hudson Mayfield

CAMP UNITY

The "Daily Worker" edition of July 1, 1953, on page 8, contained an advertisement to announce that Julian Mayfield was a staff writer on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program featuring a musical review from July 3 to July 5, 1953.

The "Daily Worker" is a former East coast daily Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

New York T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 27, 1953, that Camp Unity, since its inception, has been controlled by the CP.

New York T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on August 12, 1953, made available information which reflected that Julian Mayfield appeared in an American Folk Opera "Down in the Valley," which was presented at Camp Unity.

New York T-7, who is in a position to furnish information concerning some activities at Camp Unity, advised on August 17, 1953, that he believed that Julian Mayfield was staying at Camp Unity for that season in 1953.

New York T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 28, 1953, that Julian Mayfield participated in a narrative musical entitled, "Spalom," which was presented at Camp Unity.

New York T-9, who is in a position to furnish information concerning Camp Unity, advised on August 31, 1953, that Julian Mayfield, 69 West 99th Street, New York, New York, paid $16.00 to Camp Unity during the summer of 1953.

Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, checked on June 22, 1954, revealed that as of June 22, 1952, Julian Mayfield resided at 69 West 99th Street, New York, New York.

Additional information concerning Camp Unity will be found in the Appendix section under the heading, "Wingdale Lodge."

CIVIL RIGHTS CONGRESS (CRC)

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 11, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which reflected that Julian Mayfield appeared in a play under the auspices of the CRC.

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMITTEE FOR THE NEGRO IN THE ARTS (CNA)

The "Daily Worker" edition of August 2, 1951, on page 7, column 3, contained an article which identified Julian Mayfield as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York, New York.

The "Daily Worker" edition of November 9, 1951, on page 7, columns 2 and 3, contained an article under the heading, "Parley on Equal Rights Will Hear Negro Actor," which in part related to the subject as follows: "Julian Mayfield, Negro actor now appearing in the Committee for the Negro in the Arts production 'A Medal for Willie,' will speak at the conference on equal rights for Negroes in the Arts, Sciences and Professions at the Pythian, 135 West 70th Street, on Saturday. The conference has been called by the New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions."

The New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions is subsequently mentioned.

New York T-10, whose reliability is unknown, advised on April 2, 1954, that one Julian Mayfield was associated with and acting in plays of the CNA.

The CNA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re: Julian Hudson Mayfield

"MARTINSVILLE SEVEN"

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 5, 1951, on page 8, column 4, contained an article which states that Julian Mayfield was one of a group of actors who collected money to send representatives to Washington, D.C., to mourn four members of the "Martinsville Seven" who had been executed in Virginia.

The "Martinsville Seven" were seven Negro men who were convicted of the crime of rape in Martinsville, Virginia, and who were sentenced to death and executed in February, 1951.

New York T-8 and New York T-11, both of whom have furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1951, that the Communist Party (CP) the CRC and the Communist press gave considerable publicity to this case in their efforts to free the "Martinsville Seven."

NEW YORK COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS (NYCASP)

New York T-12, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 30, 1952, that an address by Julian Mayfield, actor, was made and sent out by the NYCASP.

New York T-5, previously mentioned, advised in May, 1953, that the NYCASP is a chapter of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions (NCASP).

The January, 1955, Volume I, Number 4, issue of "The Contemporary Reader," as published by the Contemporary Reader, Incorporated, 35 West 64th Street, New York, New York, under the auspices of the Writing and Publishing Division of the NCASP, on the last three pages of the issue, contained a list of contributors to the first four issues of this publication. The list contained the name of the contributor, the name of literary contribution and the location of the contribution in its issues of Volume I of "The Contemporary Reader." On this list appeared the

A documentation concerning the NCASP is located in the Appendix section of this communication.

APPEAL FOR WILLIE MC GEE

New York T-13, who is in a position to furnish information concerning the subject, advised on May 6, 1951, that Julian Mayfield signed an appeal urging individuals of the theatre to meet on March 5, 1951, to determine how they could best effect the freedom of Willie McGee.

Willie McGee, a Negro male of Laurel, Mississippi, was convicted for the crime of rape and was later executed.

New York T-14, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1951, that various CP front organizations were active in the attempt to appeal and protect Willie McGee's conviction.

MISCELLANEOUS

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 9, 1953, on page 6, column 2, under the heading, "What's On" contained information to the effect that Julian Mayfield was to direct the play, "The Big Deal," for "fund raising." The term "fund raising" was not further identified or described.

Records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, New York, New York, checked during June, 1954, contained the information that the name and address of Julian Mayfield, 69 West 99th Street, New York, New York, appeared as a witness on a People's Rights Party Nominating Petition for George Blake Charney, candidate for District Attorney, New York County, in 1953.

Re: Julian Hudson Mayfield

During his campaign for election as District Attorney of New York County in the November 3, 1953, New York election, George Blake Charney publically stated on radio and television that he was Trade Union Secretary of the New York State CP and was recently convicted for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. Charney stated he was the only candidate of the People's Rights Party during the election.

New York T-15, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 29, 1957, that George Blake Charney is Executive Secretary of the New York State CP.

The "Daily Worker" edition of May 29, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which stated that Julian Mayfield was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V.J. Jerome.

Victor Jeremy Jerome was one of the CP leaders convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. He was subsequently incarcerated in Federal Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was released from prison on May 17, 1957, on conditional release, to June 28, 1957, at which time his sentence for violation of the Smith Act of 1940, was completed.

New York T-5, previously mentioned, advised on May 28, 1958, that Victor Jeremy Jerome had stated he would be asked to serve on a sub-committee of the CP National Committee.

New York T-16, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 16, 1958, furnished information which reflected that Comrade V.J. Jerome was made secretary of the sub-committee to work with the National Commission for Jewish Work, CP, USA.

IV. APPENDIX

MOVIMIENTO PRO INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR)

A confidential source advised on January 31, 1959, that the MPIPR was formed at a meeting of former leaders of the PARTIDO INDEPENDENTISTA PUERTORRIQUENO (Independence Party of Puerto Rico) (PIP), a legally constituted political party, in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, on January 11, 1959, as a result of discussions by various PIP members who were dissatisfied with the PIP and who desired to form a more active organization. The announced purpose of the MPIPR was to work for the complete independence of Puerto Rico through propaganda and other peaceful means. The source advised that no information had come to his attention indicating that the MPIPR advocated the use of violence as a means of obtaining independence for Puerto Rico.

According to public statements, the MPIPR is a non-partisan organization which will accept into membership any individual who believes in independence for Puerto Rico, regardless of the group or party with which he is affiliated, and will accept as an affiliate any pro-independence organization which agrees to abide by the MPIPR Declaration of Principles.

The MPIPR General Secretariat and the MPIPR Directive Mission are composed of leaders of the independence movement in Puerto Rico and include leaders of other independence-seeking organizations, including the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico (NPPR).

The NPPR has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MOVIMIENTO PRO INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR)

A confidential source advised on January 31, 1959, that the MPIPR was formed at a meeting of former leaders of the PARTIDO INDEPENDENTISTA PUERTORRIQUEÑO (Puerto Rican Independence Party) (PIP), a former legally constituted political party, in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, on January 11, 1959, as a result of discussions by various PIP members who were dissatisfied with the PIP and who desired to form a more active organization. The announced purpose of the MPIPR was to work for the complete independence of Puerto Rico through propaganda and other peaceful means. The source advised that no information had come to his attention indicating that the MPIPR advocated the use of violence as a means of obtaining independence for Puerto Rico.

On June 20, 1960, JUAN MARI BRAS, Secretary General of the MPIPR, furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI:

Speaking on behalf of himself and his organization, MARI BRAS stated that the MPIPR does not currently advocate violence as a method of obtaining Puerto Rico's independence only because he feels violence would be ineffective against the force of the United States Government. MARI BRAS believes in the right of a people, specifically the Puerto Rican people, to use violence to obtain their freedom if and when the circumstances are such that they could possibly be successful in their effort.

MARI BRAS stated this same philosophy when he was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in March, 1944, subsequent to the NATIONALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO (NPPR) shooting in the United States Congress. MARI BRAS feels great pride and admiration for those Nationalists who have given their lives for their country.

The MPIPR General Secretariat and Directive Mission are made up of leaders of the independence movement in Puerto Rico and include leaders from other groups seeking independence for Puerto Rico, including the NPPR.

The NPPR has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The above sources was in a position to furnish accurate information regarding the organization, aims and purposes of the MPIPR.
